HOBBIES AND INTERESTS

Animating and Drawing

"I spend most of my free time drawing and animating for myself. I also dedicate it to my training and improving my skills as an animator and illustrator, which makes me a perfectionist in my work, always looking for ways to surpass myself."

Videogames

Alternative games with 8-bit pixelated stories and style are my favorites. I love spending my free time fostering my creativity and problem-solving skills through entertaining and relaxing video games that tell fascinating stories.
